Comments: This form is to be used for harassment cases in juvenile court where:

1. The respondent is a child; or
2. There is a pending CHIPS action in the juvenile court involving the child victim.

If neither of these apply, use the civil form CV-405, Petition in Civil Court for Temporary Restraining Order and/or Injunction (Harassment - 30711).

To complete this procedure in juvenile court use forms CV-406, Notice of Hearing—Temporary Restraining Order (Harassment) and CV-407, Injunction (Harassment).

If the action is brought in juvenile court using the juvenile court form, there is no filing fee.

The order can only enjoin conduct, or substantially similar conduct, which forms the finding of harassment. Bachowski v. Salamone, 139 Wis. 2d 397, 414 (1987).
